Conference Theme

The theme of ECSA 2024 is "Social Sciences in a Changing World." The conference will explore the challenges and opportunities facing social sciences in the 21st century. This includes the impact of globalization, technological change, and environmental degradation on society. The conference will also examine the role of social sciences in addressing social problems such as poverty, inequality, and discrimination.

Call for Papers

The conference organizers invite scholars to submit abstracts for papers on all aspects of social sciences. Abstracts should be submitted online by March 15, 2024. The conference program committee will review all abstracts and select the best papers for presentation at the conference.

Conference Venue

The ECSA 2024 conference will be held at the University of Aquila in Aquila, Italy. Aquila is a beautiful city located in the heart of the Abruzzo region of Italy. The city is home to a number of historical and cultural attractions, including the Basilica of San Bernardino, the Fontana delle 99 Cannelle, and the Castello di Aquila.

Conference Registration

Registration for the ECSA 2024 conference will open in April 2024. The conference registration fee includes attendance at all conference sessions, a welcome reception, and a conference dinner. The registration fee also includes a one-year subscription to the European Journal of Social Sciences.

Accommodation

The ECSA 2024 conference organizers have negotiated special rates with a number of hotels in Aquila. These rates are available to conference participants who book their accommodation through the conference website.

Travel

Aquila is easily accessible by air, rail, and road. The city is served by the Abruzzo Airport, which is located about 10 kilometers from the city center. The city is also served by the Ancona-Pescara railway line, which connects Aquila to major cities in Italy such as Rome, Florence, and Milan. Aquila is also accessible by road via the A24 motorway.
