When a prominent food critic is found dead at a prestigious culinary competition, Simi is drawn into a dangerous game of cat and mouse. The victim, known for his scathing reviews, had a long list of enemies. But who had the motive and the means to kill him?

As Simi investigates, she uncovers a web of secrets and rivalries lurking beneath the surface of the glamorous culinary scene. From jealous chefs to ambitious restaurateurs, each suspect has something to hide.

With the help of her loyal friends and family, Simi follows the clues, using her culinary skills to unravel the truth. She analyzes the victim's last meal, searching for hidden messages in the ingredients. She interviews suspects, grilling them with her sharp questions.

As the investigation deepens, Simi becomes the target of the killer, who is determined to silence her. But Simi is not one to back down. She fights back with her wits, her courage, and her undeniable passion for food.

With each twist and turn, Simi gets closer to the truth. But will she be able to solve the murder before the killer strikes again?
