3. Shape the head by knitting 2 together at the beginning of the next 6 rows.
4. Cast off the remaining 12 stitches.

Hat:

1. Cast on 36 stitches.
2. Knit in garter stitch for 24 rows.
3. Shape the top of the hat by knitting 2 together at the beginning of the next 6 rows.
4. Cast off the remaining 12 stitches.

Assembly:

1. Sew the body and hat together at the top.
2. Stuff the gnome with stuffing.
3. Sew on the embroidered eyes (optional).
4. Trim the beard and mustache to your desired length.

Tips

* You can use any type of worsted weight yarn to knit your Tomte gnomes. However, we recommend using a yarn that is soft and has a slight sheen, such as merino wool or alpaca. * If you don't have any embroidered eyes, you can use black beads or even just a few stitches of black yarn to create the eyes. * You can customize your Tomte gnomes by adding different accessories, such as a scarf, hat, or apron. * Tomte gnomes make great gifts for friends and family members. They are also a fun and easy way to add a touch of festive cheer to your home during the holiday season.
