LYRICS BY LIN-MANUEL MIRANDA
and OPETA TALENT

Moderately, with expression

I know a path from the forest. She stands a part from the crowd.
She loves the sea and the people. She makes her whole family proud.
Sometimes the path seems to guide you. The path may lead you far.

The Evolution of Film Music and Its Impact

Film music has come a long way since the era of silent films, where a lone pianist would improvise a score to accompany the flickering images on screen. Today, composers wield a vast orchestra of sounds, creating immersive soundscapes that enhance the narrative and deepen the audience's emotional connection.

From the sweeping strings of John Williams in "Star Wars" to the haunting piano melodies of Yann Tiersen in "Amelie," film music has the power to:

- * Set the tone and atmosphere of a scene
- * Enhance character development and emotions
- * Provide context and foreshadowing
- * Create a sense of wonder and escapism
