Synopsis

Set in the quaint seaside town of Sea Pennington, Shop Girl at Sea Pennington is a lighthearted crime fiction novel that will charm and entertain.

Our protagonist, Sophie, is a young woman who has always dreamed of owning her own shop. When the opportunity arises to purchase the local gift shop, Sophie jumps at the chance. She quickly learns, however, that running a business is not as easy as it seems.

As Sophie settles into her new role, she stumbles upon a murder. The victim is a wealthy elderly woman who was found dead in her home. The police are baffled, but Sophie can't help but think that there's more to the case than meets the eye.

With the help of her friends and family, Sophie sets out to solve the mystery. Her investigation leads her down a dangerous path, but she's determined to find the truth.
