Julia James is a star basketball player for the University of Jacksonville. She's tough, competitive, and doesn't take any shit from anyone. Jack Carter is a star football player for the University of Florida. He's arrogant, cocky, and thinks he's God's gift to women.

Julia and Jack first meet at a party and immediately clash. Julia thinks Jack is a典型的jock, and Jack thinks Julia is a stuck-up bitch. But as they spend more time together, they start to see each other in a new light. Julia realizes that Jack is actually a kind and caring guy, and Jack realizes that Julia is a lot more than just a pretty face.

But their relationship is still complicated by their rivalry on the court and the field. Julia is determined to beat Jack in basketball, and Jack is determined to beat Julia in football. But as their rivalry intensifies, so do their feelings for each other.

Eventually, Julia and Jack can't deny their feelings any longer and they start dating. But their relationship is still tested by their rivalry and by the disapproval of their friends and family. But Julia and Jack are determined to make their relationship work, and they eventually overcome all obstacles to be together.

UofJ is a funny, heartwarming, and sexy enemies to lovers romantic comedy sports romance. It's a story about two people who find love in the most unexpected place.

Excerpt

Julia and Jack were sitting on the bench, side by side. They were both exhausted from the game, but they couldn't stop smiling.

"We did it," Julia said.

"We did it," Jack agreed.

They had just won the championship game, and they had done it together. It was the best feeling in the world.

"I'm so proud of you," Julia said.

"I'm proud of you too," Jack said.

They looked into each other's eyes, and they both knew that they were meant to be.

"I love you," Julia said.

"I love you too," Jack said.

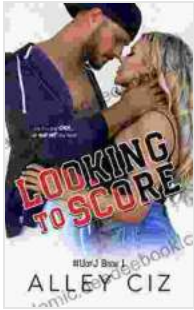

They kissed, and it was the most perfect kiss they had ever shared.
